End-markets – Q3 Performance highlights

Buildings

- Good demand in non-residential particularly across technical segments such as Public Access buildings, Retail and Hotels
- Residential buildings saw overall positive demand. North America and China weak; India, Europe, and Middle East & Africa showed signs of stabilization or improvement

Data Center & Networks

- Sustained high demand across the end-market.
- Robust demand among large customers in pure DC against high base, with strong demand growth in neo-cloud and smaller AI players
- Strong double-digit sales growth led by U.S., China and France, while power availability remains a constraint elsewhere in Europe
- Distributed-IT segment saw solid demand and sales growth

Industry

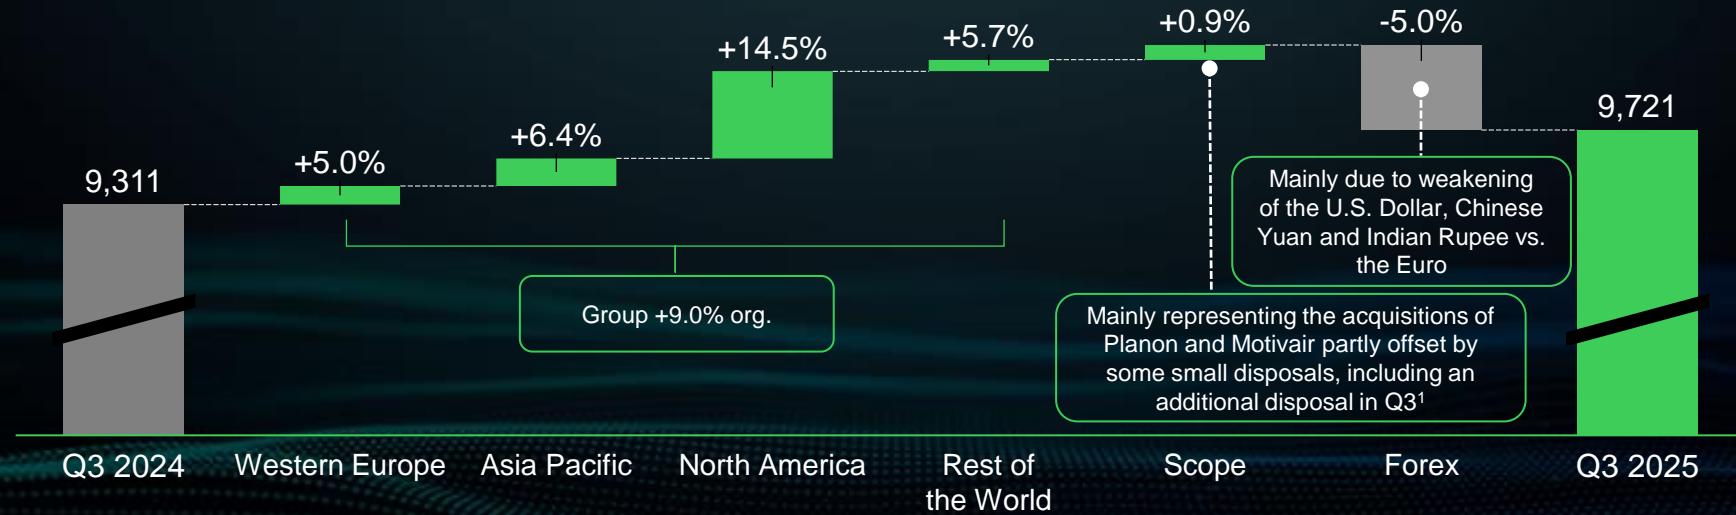

- Continued demand recovery in Discrete translating into positive sales growth
- Strong demand in Discrete industries, driven by OEM recovery, especially in Europe and China
- Process & Hybrid industries saw strong demand, led by Energies & Chemicals and Metals, Mining & Minerals, with notable contributions from the U.S., South America, and MEA

Infrastructure

- Remains strong, with demand having stabilized at a high level
- Strong sales growth in Power & Grid driven by electrification momentum, aging infrastructure, and growing grid expansion needs amid energy decentralization
- Strong demand in Water & Wastewater and Transportation, notably in North America and Europe

Growth in Q3 led by execution on Systems

PRODUCTS

48% of Q3 revenues

+3%

Q3 organic growth

- Product growth was volume driven, with positive price in North America offset by deflation in China
- Energy Management up low-single digit with good momentum in power distribution and supply resilience, partly offset by weakness in Residential, mainly in North America
- Industrial Automation up high-single digit with growth across many geographies, with the progressive demand recovery in Discrete automation now reflected in sales growth

SYSTEMS

34% of Q3 revenues

+19%

Q3 organic growth

- Energy Management grew strong double-digit with contribution across many end-markets and segments, notably Data Center in U.S., China and France
- Industrial Automation down low-single digit, with solid growth coming in Process & Hybrid markets, offset by decline in Discrete due to project execution in prior year

SOFTWARE & SERVICES

18% of Q3 revenues

+8%

Q3 organic growth

- Agnostic software
- AVEVA: ARR up +12%, with strong upsell of SaaS offers to existing customers
- EM Software: Up double-digit, led by on-prem subscription growth at ETAP, while RIB software also saw good growth
- Services
 - Digital Services: Strong growth in EcoStruxure advisors and Cybersecurity offset by softness in some other offers
 - Field Services: Up high-single digit, with balanced growth across Energy Management and Industrial Automation

Energy Management +10% Q3 org. growth

Split of Q3 2025
revenue by geography:

North America +17%

- U.S. up double-digit, with strong growth in Systems led by Data Center end-market
- Strong traction for Service offers in Data Center end-market
- Products growth flat where weakness in Residential was offset by growth from other segments
- Canada up strong double-digit, led by Data Center
- Mexico down sharply impacted by ongoing macroeconomic environment

Rest of the World +6%

- Middle East & Africa up double-digit, with growth in Saudi Arabia and U.A.E. led by project execution and strong services in E&C and P&G
- South America up low-single digit, against very high base of comparison with growth in Chile led by MMM and Data Center
- Central & Eastern Europe up low-single digit

Western Europe +5%

- Good growth in Resi overall, though varied by country. Data Center growth contributing, though constrained by power availability
- Spain up strong double-digit with good performance across end-markets, led by Data Center and Resi
- France up double-digit with improved performance in Resi supported by new offer launch and strong contribution from Data Center
- Italy, Germany and U.K. all down low-single digit due to project delays and softness in Residential
- Mid-single digit growth across the rest of the region

Asia Pacific +5%

- India up double-digit with strong growth in products leveraging complete offer across all four end-markets and multi-brand strategy
- China up low-single digit, driven by Data Center and Services, while Buildings end-market remains subdued
- Australia up double-digit driven by Data Center project execution and growth in Residential
- Low-single digit growth across rest of the region, with strong performance in Japan, Singapore and Vietnam

Industrial Automation +6% Q3 org. growth

Split of Q3 2025
revenue by geography:

North America -2%

- U.S. around flat with a return to growth in Discrete automation and moderate growth at AVEVA, offset by a decline in sales into Process & Hybrid automation markets
- Canada up high-single digit, growing across Discrete, Process & Hybrid and Software
- Mexico down due to macroeconomic uncertainty and lower activity with a customer in the E&C segment

Rest of the World +6%

- Strong double-digit growth in Process & Hybrid, led by Middle East with contribution from multiple countries and strong traction in E&C segment, supported by growth in South America
- Double-digit growth at AVEVA, led by performance in Middle East
- Discrete automation performance mixed; down in aggregate across the region with Middle East and South America impacted by a high base of comparison, while Central & Eastern Europe grew double-digit

Western Europe +6%

- Return to growth in Discrete automation, up high-single digit; solid growth in Process & Hybrid markets and AVEVA
- Spain and Italy, each up strong double-digit led by growth in Discrete and performance at AVEVA
- France and U.K. up mid-single digit led by Discrete, with France also benefitting from growth at AVEVA
- Germany slightly positive, with return to growth in Discrete automation mostly offset by weakness in Process & Hybrid

Asia Pacific +11%

- Double-digit growth in Discrete automation and Software across the region, though Process & Hybrid markets remained challenged
- China up high-single digit with good growth in Discrete Automation while Process & Hybrid declined due to project deferrals
- India up strong double-digit led by growth in Discrete, while Process & Hybrid markets saw declines in the quarter
- Australia grew strong double-digit, primarily due to AVEVA
- High-single digit growth in aggregate across rest of the region with Japan contributing strongly, while Korea declined due to timing at AVEVA

Expected trends in 2025

Amid an environment of heightened uncertainty, the Group currently expects:

- Continued demand recovery in Discrete automation in Q4
- Continued market demand to drive growth, with contribution from across end-markets (Data Center & Networks, Buildings, Industry and Infrastructure), despite weakness in Residential
- Continued strong demand for Systems offers, led by the Data Center and Infrastructure end-markets
- Further progress on subscription transition in Software; strong growth in Services
- Commercial and supply chain actions to counter the impacts of tariffs; leverage multi-hub setup to ensure agile and responsible management of profitability, capital investments and cash flow
- All four regions to contribute to growth, led by U.S., India, Middle East & Africa

2025 Target reaffirmed

Based on the ongoing uncertain geopolitical environment, and incorporating the impacts of trade tariffs enacted or formally announced to-date, the Group reaffirms its 2025 financial target as follows:

2025 Adjusted EBITA growth of between +10% and +15% organic

The target would be achieved through a combination of organic revenue growth and margin improvement, currently expected to be towards the lower half of the following ranges:

- Revenue growth of +7% to +10% organic
- Adjusted EBITA margin up +50bps to +80bps organic

This implies Adjusted EBITA margin of around 18.7% to 19.0% (including scope based on transactions completed to-date and FX based on current estimation).
